Return to CIA Library

A large installation, allegedly previously occupied by a school for postal employees, extended along the Koenigswusterhausen (N 53/V 02)-Zeessen (N 53/V 02) road. The installation, which looked like a barracks, was occupied by Russians. Sign-boards with the golden insignia of the Soviet Air Force on a pale blue priming were at the entrance. Air force soldiers left by the gate. Young men wearing hospital clothing walked about the interior of the installation. *
